of Torrance's conflict and agreement in the church gathers together his most influential essays and articles on topics relating to ecumenism. He himself involved heavily in the ecumenical movement he wrote that ours must be the task of learning together again how to confess like the early church faith in Jesus Christ as saviour and God in all its breadth and length and height and depth and therefore in the overflowing love of God out of this conviction grew a comprehensive doctrine of the church in which our differences are lost sight of because they are destroyed from behind by a masterful faith in the saviour of men. In the first volume Torrance presents a set of essays engaging theologically with different denominations along with responses to particular problems facing the ecumenical project. In particular writing after the Third World Conference on Faith and Order he addresses the hopes and barriers it raised to closer ecumenical relations. Throughout Torrance's acute awareness of contrasting theological principles establishes a firm basis for further progress without obscuring the doctrinal and ecclesiological differences that remain. In the second volume Torrance's thought on inter-denominational cooperation in light of the church's mission is presented. He begins by suggesting that the lines of conflict and agreement in the church coincide less and less with the frontiers of the historic communions. This opens the door for greater union between those communion but also exposes significant challenges to unity within them. Addressing the major debates on the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist along with the priesthood and biblical exegesis Torrance proposes a constructive way forward sealed by reconciliation in the body and blood of Christ.

From Mourning to Praise approaches the subject of suffering and loss the way the Bible approaches it with honesty regardless of how our experiences differ you can know that God continues to love you and care for you. The purpose of this book is to show you how to plead your case before God during suffering it will teach you how to seek God's face in your dark hours then when God brings you to a place where you begin to discern his deeper work in your life it will teach you how to offer meaningful praise for what he has taught you finally it will introduce you to one of the greatest blessings of suffering the opportunity to reach out to others who experience suffering or loss here are some of the points that this book affirms god cares when you suffer god is with you when you suffer the bible gives you permission to throw aside your happy mask when you suffer you have a right to complain about injustice and plead to god for justice you have the freedom to be angry with god out loud god uses suffering to produce growth and character depth suffering produces deeper character than any pleasure can produce worship from a position of suffering can be far more meaningful than worship that is always happy drawing on the reality from the book of job the psalms and from the new testament from mourning to praise invites you to grieve god's way while you wait for his deliverance
